

FOR Horse Blankets

Stable Blankets

CALL AT
Buck's Cash Hardware

Leader in Low Prices

The Tribune.

HENDRICKS & CO., Publishers.
Plymouth, Ind., December 4, 1902.

Advertisements to appear in THE TRIBUNE must be in before Tuesday noon to insure their appearance in the issue of the week.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Lola Everly has gone to St. Mary's to attend school.

Miss Ariel Morrison has returned to her home at Lisbon, Ohio.

Mrs. Dr. Preston has been visiting several days with relatives in Laporte.

Miss Carrie L. Ser, of Argos, visited over Sunday with Mrs. S. L. Shakes.

Mr. Clifford went to Rochester in the interest of the Schlosser creameries.

Miss Angie Houghton and Mrs. Samuel Parker spent Monday in Chicago.

Congress met Monday but the president's message was not read until Tuesday.

T. A. Scantling has been unable to work for the past few days on account of a severe cold.

J. H. Watson, of Argos, visited his son, Homer Watson, at Elkhart during the holidays.

Miss Emma Holem returned to Columbia City after spending her vacation in this city.

M. Doub, of Sidney, Ind., visited Saturday and Sunday in this city with Mr. Reuben Sisk.

Take a long breath now and get ready to read the headlines over the President's message.

The Plymouth Novelty company shipped a carload of telephone boxes to Elkhart Saturday.

W. L. Nash, of near Canton, Ohio, and his sister, Mrs. A. C. Hume, visited at Winona Monday.

John F. Strang, and family, former residents of Polk township, have moved to Niles, Mich.

Rev. A. P. DeLong left for Terre Haute on Monday to continue his revival work in that city.

Mrs. Mary Locke, of Culver, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city, with her son, Charlie Frutts.

John Drake, of Polk township, has been employed to teach the school five miles north-east of Bourbon.

Eber Burch will have a public sale at his residence near Blissville church in Polk township, Wednesday, December 10.

Particulars of the killing of Wesley Reynolds by bank robbers at Westville Sunday morning will be found in our news columns.

Rev. Mr. Miller, the new U. B. preacher who moved to Tyner two weeks ago, traveled that circuit twenty years ago.

At a sale of bachelors which was held in connection with a Cleveland church fair recently one young man was auctioned off for 8 cents.

The apple crop of Laporte, St. Joseph and Marshall counties is reported better in quantity and quality than at any other time for the past six years.

Miss Emma Protzman, of the Laporte schools spent Thanksgiving at her home in Plymouth and remained over Sunday to attend the teachers' institute.

Mrs. Minerva Morgan, who has been a resident of Marshall county over 65 years, has built an elegant new veranda to her country home in Polk township.

Judge Hess is in Rochester as special judge trying a case for damages against a railroad on account of an accident at a Fulton county railroad crossing several months ago.

The Ideal Portrait Medallion Company, is now located in the rooms formerly occupied by Paul's restaurant. Frank Stansbury is manager and J. J. Boehler is the artist.

Postmaster Sullivan, of Garrett, who died last Tuesday of cancer of the kidneys, weighed 440 pounds ten years ago, but at the time of his death his weight was reduced to 140 pounds.

H. A. Shambaugh made a business trip to Argos yesterday.

Judge Capron is holding court at Crown Point this week.

Attorney S. E. Summerland, of Montone, was in town yesterday.

John Nelson, of Argos, visited in Plymouth Tuesday and Wednesday.

Charles E. Schlemmer, of Bremen, is in jail charged with stealing a set of harness.

It is snowing in the northwest but no very cold weather is promised for Plymouth.

Charles McKinney and Thomas B. Lee, of Bourbon were Plymouth visitors yesterday.

The president's message shows that he does his own thinking and is master of an individual style.

The farmers' institute will be held in the court room Friday and Saturday, January 2 and 3.

Mrs. Jacob Koontz of South Bend, stopped here on her way to Bourbon for a visit of a few days.

H. G. Thayer has returned from Bourbon, where he attended the funeral of Mr. Mendenhall.

Mrs. Edwards, nee Wiltrout, of South Haven, Mich., is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Perry W. Maggart and P. P. Perry, of Warsaw, were examined by the pension board in this city yesterday.

Mrs. H. A. Swanson and Miss Guy have returned to Etina Green after a visit with relatives in this city.

Dr. Lindquist has been at Donaldson on professional business almost every day during the past week.

Miss Anna Krise has returned to her home at Peru after having been employed several weeks in this city.

Smallpox has again invaded Marshall county. Mr. and Mrs. John Rockhill, of Tippecanoe are the victims.

Lieutenant Governor Newton W. Gilbert spent Tuesday afternoon in this city with Hon. John W. Parks.

Thomas Sponsler and Mrs. Theodore Sponsler are visiting Charles Stansbury at Bloomingsburg this week.

Dr. Martin was appointed secretary of the county board of health by the commissioners at their meeting this week.

Elmer Wilson, George Gurthet, G. H. Thayer and son Edgar are attending the fat stock show at Chicago this week.

Miss Dora Haines, who has been employed at Lake of the Woods, returned to her home in Starke county today.

Mrs. Martin Myers is critically ill at her home on North Center street. She is very old and her death is expected at any moment.

Mr. Van Anden, who was at one time manager of the Kellison House in this city is now in the hotel business at Green Springs, Ohio.

Mrs. R. J. Davis is quite sick at her home in this city and her daughter, Miss Martha E. Davis has returned from Chicago to care for her.

Edward Mendenhall, one of the old and respected residents of Bourbon, died at his home Monday after a long illness. He was about 63 years of age.

Mrs. H. B. Reeves, of St. Joseph, Michigan, for more than twenty years a resident of Plymouth, is reported seriously ill. Her husband died of cancer a few years ago.

Three suspicious characters have been taken into custody at Edgerton, Ohio, who are believed to be the men who robbed the bank at Westville and murdered Wesley Reynolds.

There was a report on the streets that Frank Field had his arm torn off in a corn shredder. Our readers will be glad to learn that it is not true. The man hurt was William Fields.

W. L. Alves and wife, of Henderson, Ky., arrived from Indianapolis Saturday evening. They left for Michigan yesterday and will return to Plymouth in a few days to visit with Wm. O'Keefe and wife.

Matt Bottorff, who went to North Dakota last spring, took a homestead and worked at the carpenter trade during the summer is home for the winter. He expects to return to Dakota when spring opens.

All trusts look so bad to the Kansas court of appeals that it holds that debts to them needn't be paid. If this attitude becomes general among the judiciary, it may be the trust question will settle itself.

Arthur and Charles Lynett, aged eight and six years were burned to death at Elkhart, Sunday morning by the explosion of a can of gasoline. They were children of James Lynett, a Lake Shore fireman.

Wilton Gray, son of William E. Gray, of West township, is visiting relatives here on his way to his home in Clyde, Ohio, after attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Ella Stover in South Bend. He is an extensive fruit grower and farmer.

Emanuel Freese, who has been in North Dakota for the past eight months returned home Tuesday morning. He has located his homestead on the Loop river, and will move his family to that state in the spring. He is well pleased with that country.

Governor Durbin has appointed Patrick O'Brien, a democratic business man of Michigan City, as a member of the northern prison board to succeed E. H. Nebeker, republican, resigned.

All the counties in this section of the state had conventions of teachers, Friday and Saturday following Thanksgiving. Teachers seem to be making a determined effort to do the best work possible.

The Plymouth band will give an oyster supper and band concert at the opera house Friday evening December 19, for the purpose of raising funds to assist them in buying uniforms. Everybody should attend.

A telegram from James O. Parks says I. R. Ladd cashier of the East Chicago bank, died on Monday. He was born and grew to manhood near Argos and was for many years one of the leading Sunday school workers of Marshall county.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Nash, of Starke county, Ohio, are here visiting Mr. Nash's mother and his sisters and other relatives in Plymouth. Grandma Nash who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. A. C. Hume, is now in her 92nd year.

The postmaster general's recommendation that the rate for carrying magazines be increased from 1 to 4 cents a pound, the cost of handling them, is not unreasonable when it is remembered that a considerable part of their weight is advertising pages.

Presiding Elder Wood, of Valparaiso, preached the funeral of Edward Reynolds at Westville, Tuesday afternoon. All the stores closed and everybody paid respect to the young man who gave his life to save the money of the bank which employed him.

The papers in this part of the state are practically a unit in opposing the creation of another state normal school. It is held that there is no necessity for another of these institutions, and that as a matter of fact we already have more in that line than is beneficial.

Mrs. George Shaw who is the daughter of Rev. Mr. Parret and was married in Plymouth, was taken suddenly ill with heart failure while attending church at Elkhart Sunday night. For a few hours it seemed that she would not recover, but she is now somewhat improved.

Despite the freight blockades, the railroads broke the November record last month. Now that things are moving again, and freight rates have had a lift, what they do in December will probably be a plenty. Even the stockholders ought to come pretty near being satisfied.

The wilds of Texas have been opened to a new enterprise, or rather an old enterprise has been established there. Heaven has been located in a pine forest, there by a band claiming that the 12 tribes of Israel will congregate on that bit of earth and escape the destruction by fire at the last day.

There is little or no excuse for idle men at present. If no other employment presents itself, there is plenty of corn to husk at a good price and the man who will sit around and say there is no work, is not straining his eyes or becoming a humped backed freak looking for work. There is no excuse for feeding tramps.

The closing session of the 57th congress opened at noon Monday and will close at noon March 4. Expressions by leading senators and representatives indicate that there will be trust legislation in moderation but no attempt at tariff revision will be made until the meeting of the new congress because it takes fully three months to perfect a tariff measure.

Congressman Beidler of Cleveland tells of a clever preacher in his district whom a scolder endeavored to stamp. "You are all the time telling people about heaven," said the unbeliever, "but you clergymen don't agree as to methods. Now, which do you think is the best way to paradise?" Without an instant's hesitation came the reply: "Turn to the right and keep straight ahead."

John K. Bennett, who has been district superintendent at Buffalo for the Pullman company since 1876, said to a reporter that the shops in that city had just received an order for forty cars. He added: "We have eighty stalls at the shops and all are filled with new or repair work. There are 1,400 men employed at the shops here, and soon we will increase that number to 1,800."

Probably the greatest work ever achieved by any railway in the world in twenty-four hours was that accomplished by the Pennsylvania company at Pittsburgh Sunday, when over 900 trains, consisting of 46,225 cars, were moved, mainly by the Pennsylvania, in the effort to relieve the congestion of freight traffic.

Among those home for the holiday vacation were Frank Leonard, of the South Bend Commercial college, Miss Gertrude Peterson, teacher at North Judson, Mrs. Ida Brundige, of Fort Wayne, Miss Emma Holem, of Columbia City schools, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thomas, of Elkhart, Mrs. T. W. Gilmore, of Chicago, and Miss Lon Clare Jones, who teaches near Bremen.

The catalogues are now ready for the combination sale to be held at Warner & Kyser's livery barn. A postal will bring you one cent. They tell all about it.

The physical culture entertainment given by Miss Grace Durr's class at the opera house Saturday evening was enjoyed by all who attended. The net proceeds for distribution to the needy poor are $26.20.

If you want the prettiest, cheapest, best and most useful holiday goods in Plymouth you will call at the People's Drug store on Laporte street. Everybody should see this elegant line whether they want to buy or not.

Israel R. Ladd, of East Chicago, whose death was announced in the Tribune, Monday, died of smallpox Monday morning and was buried Monday evening. The hearts of hundreds of friends in this county are made sad by his untimely death.

Thompson Turner, deputy grand chancellor, of the K. P.'s, writes that all knights who attend the district meeting at Mishawaka, Dec. 5, will have an opportunity of seeing the "Secret Journal" of the order. This is an opportunity seldom offered.

No message was ever listened to more attentively by congress and the diplomats of foreign countries than was the president's message read in the house of representatives Tuesday and given in full to the readers of the Tribune. It will repay a careful reading.

The present week will mark the wind-up of the corn harvest in this county, nearly every farmer having finished the husking of his crop. The yield in most instances has been very satisfactory, although there is much of the product immature, which has necessitated sorting.

A petition in bankruptcy was filed with the federal court at Indianapolis Saturday by C. M. Stephens, of Walkerton, a farm implement dealer. His liabilities are $5,858.62 and his assets are $631.67. One of his creditors, Melvin Anglin, a farm implement dealer in Milford, filed the petition for Mr. Stephens.

Benton Moore, aged 50, owner and operator of a corn shredder working on the farm of Dairymen A. W. Wenger, in Elkhart county, Monday afternoon lost his left arm in the treacherous machine. The forearm was literally chewed off and the upper arm was so badly lacerated that amputation was necessary at the shoulder.

Frederick Landis, who will take his place in the house of representatives at the next session, has gone to Washington to attend this session and to become acquainted with affairs which he is to take up. Mr. Landis will attend a caucus to discuss the selection of a new speaker of the house to succeed Mr. Henderson. He favors Congressman Cannon.

Senator Parks, of Plymouth, will introduce, in the next legislature, a bill providing, among other things, that the tuition of children that are public wards shall be paid by the school corporation from which they come. The bill is the result of conferences with Frank Jones, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and W. L. Taylor, Attorney-General.

The management of the Pennsylvania has notified grain men that it cannot handle any more grain until further notice, except that now under contract for transportation east. Similar conditions are said to exist on practically all lines in Central Traffic Association territory. It is estimated that the roads are 35,000 cars behind present requirements for handling business.

A careful compilation of the fatal and severe casualties of football shows fifteen deaths, and more than one hundred severe injuries, ranging from concussion of the brain and insanity down the list through injured spines, crushed skulls, broken legs and arms to such less injuries as the tearing loose of ribs and the breaking of ear drums. If such a loss of life and limb should occur in the suppression of a riot, what a clamor would be raised!

Mrs. John W. Houghton was the first woman appointed a notary public in Marshall county, and she is the first woman insurance agent in the county. When her husband died he was agent for the Hartford, Springfield and North British insurance companies, and the managers of these companies, knowing that she had been her husband's assistant in business for many years, made her their agent in Plymouth. It is a deserved compliment to a competent and worthy lady.

A Welcome Sound. The whistle at the great factory building which has long been silent blew last Tuesday, and soon the hum of the machinery in Plymouth's great wheel factory was heard by every resident in the southeast quarter of the city.

Just when the real work of the factory will begin we cannot tell our readers today, but Plymouth is putting on new life and will soon be one of the foremost cities of northern Indiana.

Tell your neighbors about the good qualities of the Tribune.

THE OLD RELIABLE
ROYAL

BAKING POWDER
Absolutely Pure
THERE IS NO SUBSTITUTE

"Laugh and Grow Fat."
Life is such a serious business to the average mortal that an opportunity for a hearty laugh is more than welcome to most people.
"A merry heart doeth good like a medicine," and so do the humorous features of that metropolitan daily, The Chicago Record-Herald. The first thing that greets you on the first page of every issue is the humorous cartoon by John T. McCutcheon, the well-known artist that frequently tells more at a glance than could be conveyed in a column of reading-matter. Every issue contains also a humorous small story on the editorial page and the "Alternating Currents" column written by S. E. Kiser, one of the most popular humorists in the country. In addition to all these, the Sunday issue always includes a comic section, guaranteed to produce laughter.

Bosworth & Shambaugh
New Bank Block

---

We've Used The Knife

---

It's not our policy to carry over merchandise that should be sold now.

---

Big Reduction in Cloaks

We knife the prices in our Cloak Department to just about one-half regular prices. Splendid Bargains in Children's Cloaks.

$20.00 CLOAKS now $10 and...	$12.00	$12.00 CLOAKS now	$7.50
$15.00 CLOAKS now	$9.75	LADIES' CAPES $1.98 up to	$5.00

---

Fancy Flannel Waists

The best assortment and best bargains in Plymouth. These lines are best represented at our store. A splendid selection.

$3.00 WAISTS now	$2.00	$4.00 WAISTS now	$2.98
$3.50 WAISTS now	$2.50	Fancy Silk Emb'd Waists, worth $2	$1.48

---

DRESS GOODS VARIETY—Latest Novelties. A big bargain in Black Beau de Soie for One Dollar a yard. For the big HOLIDAY TRADE this store will be full of the practical Kris Kringle merchandise, and you have your choice here. CASH DISCOUNT or TRADING COUPONS with all cash purchases.

M. Lauer & Son
ONE PRICE OUTFITTERS

---

Grand December Cleaning Up Sale

---

This sale commences Saturday, Dec. 6th in all our first and second floor departments.

Thousands of dollars' worth of the highest grade of new and seasonable Clothing, Shoes, Furnishing Goods, Hats, Caps and Underwear have been marked for QUICK SELLING.

YOU man who has been waiting for extra inducements to buy your winter supply now is the time. You all know that we PROMISE LESS and DO MORE for you in LEGITIMATE GOODS and LOW PRICES than any store in the city.

Come to us on Suits and Overcoats, Felt Boots and Rubber Goods of every kind, and do not buy until you see our goods and prices. Goods for your family can be bought for one-half ordinary cost.

DON'T FORGET THAT WE DO EXACTLY AS WE ADVERTISE. WE HAVE PLENTY OF HELP TO WAIT ON ALL. TRADING STAMPS GIVEN FREE ON ALL SALES.

